Ms. Karbo develops and implements successful government relations strategies at the Minnesota State Legislature for a diverse range of firm clients. She is knowledgeable and focused on transportation, energy, healthcare, education, and Indian Affairs issues. Known for her thoughtful legislative analysis, Ms. Karbo also excels at client communications, issue research, and relationship building.

In addition to her role in state government relations and lobbying at the State Capitol, Ms. Karbo has supported the firm's grassroots advocacy department by creating and maintaining statewide coalitions, helping clients craft and refine their strategic communications, and identifying, educating, and engaging new grassroots advocates to help extend and amplify clients' messages.

Prior to joining LGN, Ms. Karbo worked at the Minnesota Senate Republican Caucus where she assisted the Higher Education Finance Committee. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Minnesota in 2008.
