

Angie A. Hasek

Communications & Grassroots Advocacy

612-596-4041

aahasek@locklaw.com

Angie A. Hasek

Angie Hasek is a part of the firm's state government relations team and works with clients on communications and grassroots advocacy efforts.

Prior to joining LGN, Ms. Hasek worked in a variety of grassroots and political campaign roles. Most recently, she worked for the United States House of Representatives as Congressman Erik Paulsen's District Outreach Coordinator in his Minnesota office. She was responsible for developing and maintaining relationships between the Paulsen office and community leaders and organizations.

Ms. Hasek also played key roles in two of Congressman Paulsen's reelection campaigns; as the Political Director and the Field Office Manager respectively. Additionally, Ms. Hasek worked on engaging youth in the political process during the 2014 election cycle where she recruited hundreds of college students to volunteer in Minnesota House races across the state. Through her political involvement, she has cultivated a strong and diverse network of political and business leaders.

Ms. Hasek graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Entrepreneurship from the University of St. Thomas.