

Anna M. Horning Nygren

Anna Horning Nygren represents clients in complex business litigation. Anna frequently defends large and small governmental and business clients facing employment claims in federal court, in state court, and in agency settings. Anna has particular experience defending employers against claims of discrimination and retaliation.

As part of the firm's antitrust department, Anna represents small and mid-sized business in complex litigation involving other businesses nationwide. She is experienced in antitrust discovery issues and has broad experience in the meet-and-confer process, including the resulting motion practice.

Anna also counsels firm clients on property acquisition, sales, and leasing.

Anna is a member of LGN's Diversity and Inclusion Committee and serves as a Section Council Member of the Antitrust Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association.

Anna was recognized as a "Rising Star" by Minnesota Super Lawyer magazine in 2014, 2015 and 2016. She is a summa cum laude graduate of American University Washington College of Law, Order of the Coif and was Associate Symposium Editor for the American University Law Review. She clerked for Justice Helen Meyer of the Minnesota Supreme Court before joining Lockridge Grindal Nauen P.L.L.P.

An active volunteer in her community, Anna serves as a volunteer lawyer for the Advocates for Human Rights and has successfully obtained asylum, legal permanent residency, and citizenship for her clients.
